

MUCH COTTON SIGNED UP

Only One More Week of Cooperative Cotton Marketing Campaign.

Wednesday Morning—County Agent Bowen has just informed The Sentinel that the most enthusiastic meeting ever held in Easley was held Tuesday afternoon in the interest of the cooperative cotton marketing campaign. As a result of the meeting over 400 bales were signed up in a few minutes and all merchants of Easley agreed to close their stores next Tuesday afternoon and tour the county in an effort to sign up our quota of cotton.

A whirlwind tour of Pickens county will also be made Saturday of this week and will wind up with a meeting in Pickens at 4 o'clock p. m. A prominent Texas farmer will probably be in the touring party and it will also be accompanied by a brass band. It is expected that Pickens county will sign up around 3000 more bales between now and May 1. More than 1000 bales have already been signed in the county.

Six South Carolina counties have gone over the top in the cotton cooperative marketing campaign, according to officials of the South Carolina Cotton Growers' Co-operative association. The six counties are Marlboro, Darlington, Sumter, Calhoun, Dillon and Dorchester. Several other counties are expected to reach their quota by Saturday night.

As the sign-up campaign draws to a close more interest is being shown in Pickens county. During the past week about 500 bales were signed up, making a total of more than 1000 bales for this county. Several of the largest farmers of the county have signed.

The campaign will close May 1 and an intensive drive will be made in Pickens county this week. County Agent Bowen states that the business men of Easley are going to get in their automobiles and give one day of their time to the cause.

Reports from other sections of the state indicate that the required quota of bales will be signed in his state to make the system a success.

MAY RUN FOR GOVERNOR

There is a persistent rumor throughout the state that Ex-Governor John Gary Evans of Spartanburg will be in the race for governor this year. So far the only candidates who have definitely announced for governor are Ex-Governor Blease, Andrew J. Betha and William A. Coleman of Union.

It is also known that strong pressure is being brought to bear upon State Superintendent of Education Swearingen and Henry C. Tillman of Greenwood to run for governor. Mr. Tillman is a son of the late Senator Ben Tillman.

Judging by casual inquiries made by The Sentinel Blease and Tillman would be the favorites in Pickens.

Be sure to have your annual meeting on the fourth Saturday in April for the purpose of reorganizing. The fourth Saturday is the day named in our rules and if any club fails to call its members together and organize on that day your only chance then to be represented would be for the county committee to fix a day for such club by giving two weeks notice, so do not let Saturday, April 22, pass without getting your men together.

TO THE WOMEN OF PICKENS COUNTY.

Please allow me to call your attention to the fact that the various Democratic clubs are to meet on the fourth Saturday of this month for re-organization and to elect delegates to the county conventions which will be held on the following Monday, May 1st. Since the average voter comes into direct contact with the management of her party only at the club meetings, it is urged that every woman who has attained her majority or who will become twenty-one years of age before the general election in November, attend the meeting which will be held in her precinct on April 22nd.

Of course, it is taken for granted that each club in electing delegates to the county convention will provide for a fair representation of women, but, since time immemorial, it has been the custom to select men only, this provision may be overlooked unless women are present as a reminder that they, also, are citizens. Then too, the delegation chosen by the county convention to the state convention should be composed of both men and women; and a woman, as well as a man, should be selected to represent the county on the State Democratic Executive Committee. The Democratic party now requires that the National Executive Committee shall comprise two members, a man and a woman, from each state. Mrs. Julian B. Salley, of Aiken being our representative.

In conclusion, let me say that the nineteenth amendment gives the vote alike to the women who wanted it and to the woman who thought she did not want it. Neither has the right to neglect it. It now becomes just as much the duty of every woman in South Carolina to use her ballot for the public welfare as it has for generations been the duty of our men to employ the franchise for the best interests of the State. Shall we prove less mindful and worthy of the trust than they?

Mrs. Annie Gaines Williams,
Chairman South Carolina League of Women Voters.

In the opening baseball games of the season in the Pickens County Textile league Glenwood defeated Pickens in Pickens by a score of 14 to 6, and Liberty defeated Central on the Liberty diamond, 11 to 5. No report from the Easley-Alice game.
